The Stadthuys

St Paul's Church

Porta de Santiago

Dataran Pahlawan Melaka
Megamall

- The Stadthuys (Outside Visit): Built by the Dutch between 1641 and 1660 on the ruins of a Portuguese fort. This massive red building displays all the common features of the Dutch colonial architecture which includes substantial solid doors and louvered windows.
- St Paul's Church: The Portuguese built this church in 1521 and called it "Our Lady of the Hill." It acquired its present name from the Dutch, who built a new Lutheran church down the hill, while St. Paul's became a funereal ground and a white-washed navigational marker for passing ships.
- Porta de Santiago: As one of the four main gates of the A Famosa fortress, it is the best evidence of Portuguese occupation hundreds of years ago. This historic structure was built by the Portuguese in 1511 under the command of Alfonso de Albuquerque.
- Dataran Pahlawan Melaka Megamall: The Mall houses local, international fashion brands, F&B favourites and entertainment centres. Enjoy free time shopping here!
- The Shore Sky Tower (Level 43): Walk around the roof and discover a world above. The perimeter fencing the deck is constructed from glass, for you to see through it. With the telescope provided, you can easily spot the view of the Melaka City. More thrills and excitement awaits you, as you take in the view under your foot with glass flooring at Sky Deck. Be surrounded by skyscrapers and enjoy a truly unique experience with amazing 360° panoramas view of the city and beyond.
- Jonker Walk: Both sides of the road are flanked with heritage houses dating back up to the 17th century. Many shops are selling antiques, textiles, handicrafts and souvenirs. The diversity of Jonker Walk's traditional and urban attractions is a testament of Malaysia's colorful history and rich multicultural society.

Important Note:

- Around 500 steps to climb up to the Porta de Santiago. Not recommended for guests in wheelchair or with limited mobility. Guests can alternatively enjoy taking photos at a nearby location.
- Guests will take the lift to level 42 and need to walk up the stairs to the observation deck on level 43. This attraction is not recommended for those guests who are with limited mobility or in wheelchairs. Guests can alternatively enjoy taking photos at a nearby location.

	Embark on a journey with us in search of Melaka's best cuisines, hidden tastes on this food trail! You'll do nothing but eat, eat and eat! Be prepared to feast on Melaka's diverse yet mouth-watering food scene.
Durian Puff	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Melaka Gourmet Tasting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Taste Better Durian Puffs (3 Puffs per person): This small, roadside stall beside Jonker 88 sells handmade, freshly-baked durian puffs. Every bite guarantees a taste of fresh durian filling that was prepared with no preservatives. Famosa Chicken Rice Ball (Shared Set Meal): Chicken Rice Ball is one of Melaka's most famous dishes. It is hard to see why it isn't when the moist, sticky and fragrant rice balls and juicy, steamed soy-sauce chicken forms such a captivating combination of flavours. Sample it with some chilli sauce, to add a spicy, salty kick that pairs well with the rest of the dish.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> San Shu Gong & Lao Qian Ice Café (Local food and drinks at own expenses): At this local product centre, shop from an array of local cookies and candies. Remember to get the popular products such as belacan (a Malay variety of shrimp paste), curry powder and cincalok (fermented small shrimps or krill). Craving for a warm cup of traditional milk tea? Or are you looking to cool yourself down with a cup of iced coffee? Whatever it is, you are sure to get your fix at Lao Qian Ice Café, located in the same building as San Shu Gong product centre. Watch as the baristas prepare milk teas with the traditional "pulling" method, which ensures the drink to be richly-foamed, flavoursome and ready to enjoy at an ideal drinking temperature.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Jonker 88 (Meals at own expenses): An inconspicuous food court that offers traditional delicacies like Cendol and Assam Laksa. Rumour has it - Jonker 88 serves the best Cendol that Melaka has to offer. The Assam Laksa here is also a proud favorite of many locals, though it may be a little spicy for some.
Famosa Chicken Rice Ball	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Jonker Walk: Both sides of the road are flanked with heritage houses dating back up to the 17th century.
