Enhanced special effects and the world's most advanced technology are used to produce a very realistic, stimulating and inspiring experience. Start off the evening by exploring the Thai Village of the Four Regions. You can experience a rural life in bygone times set on a small pond alongside the theatre, which affords a fascinating glimpse of the traditional lifestyles, arts and crafts of rural Thailand. Siam Niramit offers a buffet dinner in an elegant restaurant overlooking the Thai Village of the Four Regions. You'll find all the signature dishes that make Thai cuisine renowned around the world. The show in the theatre is divided into three acts that are equally entertaining. International audiences might want to pay closer attention to Act II, which presents how Thais conceive the concept of heaven and hell. While heaven is beautiful with divas and angels (literally) flying around, hell, on the other hand, is quite scary indeed. Imagine drinkers forced to imbibe from a cauldron of boiling water and adulterers compelled to climb horribly spiky thorn trees. The stage setup and special effects alone are spectacular and very realistic with amazing costumes. Siam Niramit definitely has what it takes to become another successful and must-see attraction! Important Notes: Driving duration from the port to Siam Niramit takes about 30 minutes one way.
